Apprentice Program

A Tradition of Championships

Introduced in 1903 by architect Henry Fownes, Oakmont Country Club has hosted more combined USGA and PGA championships than any other course in the U.S., including nine U.S. Opens, five U.S. Amateurs, three PGA Championships, and two U.S. Women's Opens.

"Oakmont is the place to be for up and coming professionals to hone their craft and take their career to the next level. The success of the program is industry recognized and boasts superintendent graduates at top Clubs throughout the world."

-Brett Bentley, Director of Agronomy

"In the USGA's eyes, Oakmont is the gold standard for championship golf, It also happens to be one of the very best conditioned courses I've ever seen." –Mike Davis USGA

The ideal candidate is a highly motivated individual who is looking to eventually become a Golf Course Superintendent. This candidate should be a self-starter who takes pride in their work ethic.
